

IRVING, Texas, June 13, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exela Technologies, Inc. ("Exela" or the "Company") (NASDAQ:XELA), one of the largest global providers of platforms for Business Process Automation ("BPA"), today announced that as part of the annual reconstitution of the Russell stock indexes, Exela has been selected to be added to the Russell 2000[®] Index as well as the broad-market Russell 3000[®] Index. The Russell index changes will be effective after the US market opens on June 25, 2018, according to a preliminary list of additions.

"We are very pleased to be added to the Russell 2000[®] and the Russell 3000[®] Indexes," stated Ronald Cogburn, Chief Executive Officer of Exela. "After going public just one year ago, our inclusion represents an opportunity to further increase our visibility and exposure among investors. We look forward to expanding our shareholder base and working to drive additional shareholder value."

Membership in the Russell 3000[®] Index, which remains in place for one year, means automatic inclusion in the large-cap Russell 1000[®] Index or small-cap Russell 2000[®] Index as well as the appropriate growth and value style indexes. FTSE Russell determines membership for its Russell US Indexes primarily by objective, market-capitalization rankings and style attributes.

Russell US Indexes are widely used by investment managers and institutional investors as the basis for index funds and as benchmarks for active investment strategies. Approximately $9 trillion in assets are benchmarked against Russell US Indexes. Russell US Indexes are part of FTSE Russell, a leading global index provider.
