

IRVING, Texas, Oct. 25, 2022(GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exela Technologies, Inc. (“Exela”) (NASDAQ: XELA, XELAP), a leading provider of Business Process Automation solutions, today announced that it has been recognized as a ‘Leader’ in the first edition of Everest Group’s Medical Coding Operations – PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2023. This report provides a detailed analysis and assessment of 22 operations service providers featured on the Everest Group’s Medical Coding Operations PEAK Matrix® Assessment. The report provides the relative positioning and analysis of providers based on the evaluation of their strengths and limitations.

“Demand for medical coders is in on the uptick as healthcare providers in the United States struggle with talent shortages. In fact, specialty-originated medical coding is one of the key areas where health systems and other providers are looking for support from third-party vendors,” said Ankur Verma, Practice Director at Everest Group. "Exela Technologies capitalized on this opportunity through a combination of domain and technology investments. Exela’s large client base coding offerings catering to multiple specialties, including complex inpatient coding, proprietary AI/ML coding tools, and diversified delivery capabilities propelled the firm to be a Leader on Everest Group’s Medical Coding Operations PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2023.”

“We are pleased to learn that the Everest Group has named Exela as a LEADER in the inaugural publication of their Medical Coding Operations report,” said Kevin Lathrop, Exela’s President of Healthcare Services. “Our LexiCode division has served the needs of our customers for more than 40 years and is a recognized leader in the market. Our domestic and global operations teams deliver unparalleled quality and drive significant value to those health organizations who put their trust in us.”

Everest Group is an industry-leading consulting and research firm focused on strategic IT, business process services, and engineering. The ‘Leaders’ in Everest Group’s PEAK Matrix assessments are those companies that demonstrate exceptional innovation and transition management in their engagements while enhancing technological capabilities through proprietary solutions, partnerships or acquisition.
